"Death comes to the young and old—
To the youth and to the patriarch."

And sometimes I am unable to figure out why. Monday afternoon a tragic accident happened in Canal Point that snuffed out the life of a splendid little character. Nine-year-old "Mackie" Chastain—I doubt if a dozen of his little friends knew that his full name was Mack Anderson Chastain—named after his grandfather and father—died almost instantly when a shotgun was accidently discharged in the hands of one of his playmates. The suddenness and shock of the little chap's death cast a pall of gloom over the entire citizenry of this community. The esteem in which "Mackie" and his parents are held by their friends and neighbors was evidenced Wednesday afternoon when funeral services were conducted at the Canal Point Baptist church. Banks of beautiful flowers spoke last minute words of sympathy. Comforting words buoyed bereaved parents and relatives. A youthful and promising life is suddenly cut short. A home is saddened. A community sympathizes.

Life ceases.

And, life goes on.

Boys and girls of the Lake Okeechobee region and other sections of Palm Beach county have a great deal at stake next Tuesday in the special school bond election. If these same boys and girls are to be given advantages of an efficient education the bond issue will necessarily have to carry—otherwise in the next year or two many of these youngsters are doomed to attend schools wherein there is insufficient room. Year after year—for the past ten—enrollment has been steadily increasing. During the past ten years the school enrollment in Palm Beach county has doubled—from 7,000 to 14,000. And, now with proposed federal assistance the county school board has opportunity to correct a situation that is in dire need of correction. There is opportunity—if the bond election carries—of building good and sufficient additions to the present Glades school buildings to care for increased enrollments of the future.

Over-confidence! Under-rating their opponents! Or call it what you will—the Blue Devil foot ball aggregation came so near to taking a trouncing last Friday afternoon in Fort Pierce that there wasn't any fun in the game for supporters of the Hobson-coached crew. From the starting whistle it didn't look like a Pahokee foot ball team out there playing Fort Pierce. The old zip was missing. The boys weren't clicking. They couldn't get started. Blocking was conspicuous by its absence. But—in the final three minutes of play the Blue Devils displayed a flash of their old form and put across a touchdown, followed by an extra point to eke out a win over the Fighting Eagles. The final score was 7 to 6. And, to keep the records straight I'd like to record right here and now that it was one of those lucky breaks that set up that particular winning touchdown.

So, the hunting season is on! What matters how little beans bring? Suppose we do have a frost? Why worry? Didn't I just say that the hunting season is on? So—my friends, if you miss some of the familiar faces from their familiar haunts in the Glades area during the next couple of weeks you might find them around some of their familiar haunts down deep in the cypress. Last July—when things were quite quiet—I remember that some of the fellows were planning for this particular week. There were even getting up their grocery lists. You'd have thought that the trip was to come off the following day. But the season is here! Cares and worries are cast aside momentarily. A few days in the woods and there will be material for conversation for many a day to come.

I've been having a lot of fun demonstrating the excellent qualities of the new style picker's ticket we're furnishing the grow-

Credit Association To Cover Glades; In Hands of Organization Committee

Paid Secretary To Be Engaged To Devote His Full Time

Another meeting of Everglades business men interested in the organization of a credit association for the Lake Okeechobee region was held Tuesday night at the American Legion hall in Belle Glade. Eleven prospective members of the association were present including several business men from Belle Glade and one each from Pahokee and Clewiston. L. E. Will presided and G. W. Crews acted as secretary.

Those present agreed on the election of a three man committee, consisting of W. P. Hill of Belle Glade, C. V. Parkinson, Clewiston, V. L. Geiger of Pahokee, to handle all organization details. It was decided that the committee will appoint a permanent salaried secretary for the association and authorize an attorney to draw up the necessary incorporation papers.

The meeting was held as a concluding measure in the organization of the association. The first official meeting of business men interested in the proposal was held two weeks ago. In addition to the selection of the temporary committee, the group decided on such matters as dues for members of the organization, location of the association's office and the proposed relationship between this and other outside credit bureaus. It had been decided at the first meeting two weeks ago that all interested merchants in the Lake region were to be invited to participate in the formation of the association. Mr. Will assured those present of the full cooperation of the Everglades retail gasoline dealers association which was organized last summer with about 35 dealers taking part in the group. This organization did not succeed in bringing about any permanent success in the establishment of a credit information bureau, however.

Further matters decided included the suggestion that all members of the association be charged a membership fee of $2 per month and extra charges for credit inquiries above a stated number. It was also brought out that the association would undoubtedly become self-supporting within a few months as a result of certain business received in relation to outside credit investigations. Membership would probably reach an ultimate total of from 75 to 100, it was agreed. Belle Glade was selected as the most central point for the location of the credit office. Discussion of the possibility that the bureau might also handle collections of delinquent accounts after becoming well organized, took place.

The present three man committee will lay the ground work for the organization and, at a later date, announce a general meeting of prospective members at which time a permanent committee and officers will be elected. It was decided that all reputable merchants, professional men and other credit associations will be allowed participation in the Everglades association.

Department of Agriculture, and at present conducting research work at the government field station in Canal Point, will be the guest speaker at a P.-T. A. meeting to be held next Monday night in the Canal Point school auditorium.

Dr. Motz is an extensive traveler having visited every country in the world except China and India. He is reputedly an interesting and able lecturer and speaker and a most worthwhile evening is assured all who attend. The meeting was postponed from last Monday night and will commence at 7:30 p. m.

Amateur Bouts To Be Offered Weekly By Pahokee Legion

Battlers Will Weigh From 40 Pounds Up To 155 Pounds

The Pahokee American Legion is endeavoring to provide the kind of entertainment that people in the Lake Okeechobee region prefer. On Thursday night of each week they offer big time wrestling matches and starting Monday night the organization will present weekly amateur boxing bouts. The card for next Monday night is an excellent affair and will see fighters weighing from 40 pounds up to 155 pounds throwing the leather.

J. Q. Henry, who is in charge of the bouts for the Legion, stated yesterday that he has secured the services of seven Golden Gloves champs from West Palm Beach and several from Fort Pierce. These boys are seasoned veterans for their ages and weights and should provide a good show.

Among the boys who will appear on Monday night's card are: Frank Young, 152 lbs., of West Palm Beach matched with Dan Gill, 152 lbs., of Belle Glade. T. W. Mills, 140 lbs., of West Palm Beach, matched with Milton Green, 140 lbs., of Fort Pierce. Joe Wilson, 50 lbs., of West Palm Beach, matched with Tommy Hansen, 55 lbs. of West Palm Beach. Herb Wilson, 72 lbs. of West Palm Beach, matched with Elton Hardy, 75 lbs. of Fort Pierce. Several local boys have been scheduled to participate in the evening's entertainment. There will be between 10 and 12 three round bouts to a decision, Mr. Henry said.

New Clerk Is Hired For Belle Glade P.O.

The new postoffice clerk for the Belle Glade postoffice was finally hired after a series of hurried communications between George Farnall, Belle Glade postmaster, and department officials in Washington, D. C. The new clerk, Mrs. Graham Mole, began work at the Belle Glade postoffice on Tuesday. Official notice of the federal allotment was received by Farnall on Friday, November 11.

Mrs. Mole has worked previously in the Belle Glade postoffice having had about two years experience as a clerk. Last summer she helped out at Lake Butler in the absence of the postmaster. The allowance calls for the extra clerk hire during the months of November and December.

In addition to the new clerk, the Belle Glade postoffice received two new sections of postoffice boxes. The much needed additions are being rapidly signed out, thirty-four being assigned Wednesday afternoon after less than one day of open sales. The new boxes bring the total number in the postoffice to 522.

Blue Devils Ready For Invading Team From Stuart Tonite

Large Crowd of Stuart Supporters to Accompany Team

The Hobson Blue Devils, masters over six of seven gridiron aggregations met so far this season, will enter tonight's game with the Stuart football eleven a slight favorite over their opponents. The Pahokee lads will have the advantage of a home field in addition to a slight weight edge over the Stuart team.

Coach Hobson has been putting the Devils through some stiff practice sessions this week in an effort to correct the ineffectual tackling and blocking of last Friday's tussle with the Fort Pierce Eagles. Scrimmage and more scrimmage has been the daily diet of the Blue and White squad and it is expected certain improvements in the fundamentals of the game will be evident tonight. At least Coach Hobson has left no effort undone in whipping the squad into better shape. A hard, fast game is expected with the improving Stuart eleven presenting a fast, heavy backfield quartet behind a solid forward wall. The Stuart eleven was impressive in their losing battle with Lake Worth last Friday night, providing a real second half aggregation with a stubborn defense.

The Blue Devils will again be minus the services of I. J. Frasure, stellar signal caller, who is out because of a boil. Boynton will shift over to quarterback and Peacock will start at left half. Fowler, at right, and Dell, at fullback will complete the starting lineup. In the line, Baxter, Unwin, Elmo Hancock and Wilkinson will fill the left side of the Pahokee line from end to center and Kautz, Bob Beardsley and Spooner will hold down the opposite side of the line. Kautz will remain at guard both on defense and offense, it was learned.

Stuart thus far this season has beat Melbourne, 7 to 6, Ft. Pierce 12 to 6, and Okeechobee, 19 to 0 the two latter games being subsequently forefited because of the ineligible playing of two boys Barker and Hardwick. The Stuart eleven has dropped engagements to Miami Beach, 14 to 0, and Lake Worth, 13 to 7.

Visitors Are Shown Glades Cane Area

Dr. Julius Motz, government pathologist temporarily stationed at the Canal Point field station while conducting research work and J. W. Strickland and W. P. Jernigan, both of the local field station, this week conducted two honored visitors from abroad on a tour of the eastern division of the United States Sugar corporation holdings, the government field station at Canal Point and the Clewiston area. Chalmers of the Fiji Island, passed through this section after having attended the International Sugar Conference at New Orleans two weeks ago.

Special Election Tuesday Will Tell Fate of Bond Issue

Glades Vitally Interested Since Schools Here Will Benefit

If school children of the Lake Okeechobee region are to have adequate buildings and facilities to insure them of the best that is to be had in educational advantages, more money must be forthcoming in pay for these new structures and equipment. With increased enrollment year after year it is imperative that arrangements be made immediately to care for these youngsters—to insure them an education second to none.

On next Tuesday the freeholders in Special Tax School District No. 1 will have opportunity to insure these much needed facilities if they will go to the polls and vote for the bond issue of $200,000, so say many prominent citizens who are working in an effort to put the bond issue over the top in the special election. The bond issue, county school officials say, will not increase taxes under the present plan, but will assist the largest school district in the county to launch a $289,972.85 PWA building improvement program.

Carl Widell, chairman of the county school board, assures the citizenry of the district that the bond issue will not increase taxes because of steps already taken by the board to spread payments of existing bonds over a longer period of time, thereby enabling the board to stay within the present 10 mill tax limit for school operating expenses and maintenance. It was pointed out by members of the board that $80,798.57 of the money will be spent in the Lake Okeechobee region where all school buildings are filled to capacity with students this year. The enrollment in the county has increased from 7,000 ten years ago to more than 14,000 today. The increase in the Lake region is above the average for the remainder of the county.

Members of the board pointed out this week that freeholders have all to gain and nothing to lose by voting favorably on the bond issue. Since the improve-

Hospital Month To Acquaint Section With Institution

30 Day Campaign Started By Directors And Committees

Starting this week and lasting for thirty days an intensive campaign will be carried on by the Everglades Memorial hospital in an effort to acquaint the people of this territory with that institution, its needs and its service to humanity in this area. Each community in this area will be represented in the drive by a separate and distinct unit working cooperatively for success of the campaign.

The drive is being instituted by the board of directors of the hospital, who believe that the entire community should be thoroughly acquainted with the workings of the institution, and these men will co-operate with the committees from the various sections of the community. Lake Harbor will be represented by Mrs. Geo. Royal, Mrs. Billy Scogins, Mrs. Joe Wood; South Bay by Mrs. William Rawle; Pahokee by Mrs. J. W. Cochran; Canal Point by Mrs. O. D. Taylor and a representative is still to be chosen in Belle Glade.

The thirty-day campaign will be conducted in an effort to get people of this area to become hospital-minded. Heretofore, only a handful of people have been putting forth an effort to make the hospital a going institution. It is the sincere hope of the board of directors and the committee members that after the educational drive is over that every person in the section will be interested in keeping the hospital open for service.

The board of directors are of the opinion that too many people in the Lake region believe the hospital is a charity institution pure and simple. This is not the case. It is true that the county does allot an amount less than $500 monthly to take care of strictly charity patients. Others, who are not in this category, are expected to pay the same as they would in any hospital in West Palm Beach or Miami.

Rev. Fred L. Martin of Pahokee is chairman of the board of directors; R. Y. Creech, Rev. Marion Sentell and Herbert D. Beck are Belle Glade members; O. B. McClure and George Mead are Pahokee members; Paul Rardin serves from Canal Point, C. M. Larrick from Lake Harbor, Bill Allen from South Bay. B. Elliott is vice chairman. T. C. Richardson is secretary and Miss Fannie Mae Sims is superintendent.

Federal Aid May Be Secured To Finish Hiway Number 25

Road Chairman Submits Road 25 Worthy Of Such Help

Word was received this week from Arthur B. Hale, chairman of the State Road department of Florida, that State Road No. 25 had been submitted along with 13 other roads to the joint legislative highway committee as a prospective farm to market road elegible for secondary federal aid assistance. If the proposal is accepted it will assure the immediate completion of road 25 and include regular maintenance of the road.

The Highway Planning Survey division of the State Road department has been responsible for formulation of the plan and final results were obtained and the basis for the method selected through a survey in Alachua county. The method proposed by the Highway Planning Survey is based on a county proportion to the state in area, population and motor vehicle registration, which are considered as the determining factors in guiding selection of such roads for inclusion in the final highway program to be submitted to the 1939 legislature by the committee.

The roads selected by this method will include areas having good agricultural possibilities which are at present inadequately served by hard-surfaced roads.

Funeral Services On Wednesday For Mackie Chastain

Canal Point Youth Killed Monday Night By Shotgun

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Canal Point Baptist church for Mack Anderson (Mackie) Chastain, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson R. Chastain of Canal Point, who died Monday night a few minutes after the discharge of a shotgun entered his neck and chin. The last rites were conducted by Rev. S. B. Jordan, pastor of the church, and burial was made in West Palm Beach by the Everglades Funeral home of Pahokee.

The tragic accident, which brought about Mackie's death, happened late Monday afternoon when he and four companions were in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Rewis in Canal Point where they had gone for eggs. While young Grady Rewis was getting the eggs something was said about a shotgun—a 410 guage—being fixed. Andrew Hyes, Charles Singletary and Eugene Griffis were the other boys in the home at the time. Young Griffis walked to the corner and picked up the gun—while he was examining it the gun was discharged. The load entered Mackie's chin and neck. Immediately after the accident the ambulance from the Everglades Funeral Home was summoned—but all efforts to save little Mackie's life were in vain.

New Style Picker's Ticket Printed By News Gets An Okeh

Growers "Tickled Pink" With New Card This Office Uses

Do you have any trouble with the old style picker's ticket? If you do and are looking for something better The Everglades News office or The Belle Glade News office will gladly furnish you with the very latest thing in picking tickets. We've finally found that particular kind of waterproof card board that is necessary to stand the wear and tear of handling. Come what may in the bean field—this new style picker's ticket can take it.

One grower told us he was "tickled pink" with the way the new tickets stand up in wet weather. He said they were worth every dime of the extra cost and nothing else will he use in the future. Single thousands cost $8.00 as compared with $2.50 for the old style. Of course, after the first thousand they get a lot cheaper in price. We'll quote you on any amount. But, the growers in the Lake region who are using them believe that it is money saved.

One farmer said that his supply of new tickets became a bit soiled and he tossed them in the washing machine with a goodly supply of suds and shortly they were like new. He failed to tell us whether or not he ironed them after the washing. Any way, they're good tickets—we know that—but we're not going to recommend that they be washed in an electric washer.

If your supply of tickets is low and you need new ones just get in touch with The Everglades News office in Canal Point or The Belle Glade News office in Belle Glade and your wants will be taken care of pronto.

Now is Time To Secure Subscription For Big Votes

The campaign manager wishes he could make this article so impressive that every subscriber to The News and every "Fortune Hunter" would realize the absolute necessity for the maximum of collections the remainder of this week and all of next week.

Here is the situation. This is the fourth issue of The News containing announcements concerning the "Treasure Hunt" subscription drive. There will be four more. With time almost half gone there is absolutely not one minute that can be safely wasted or frittered away. The "Treasure Hunter" who is seeking leading honors must make every minute count.

Here are some serious thoughts for our workers to ponder. The time, during which the largest number of credits allowed on subscriptions, is rapidly passing. Only nine days remain of the "First Period" schedule. That means just the balance of this week and then, next week. Hadn't you better begin to think in terms of clubs instead of single subscriptions? Just stop and remember what a few clubs would mean to you in the way of votes. One club of only $20 means 50,000 extra votes for you. Is a club each day too much to expect, if you are really in earnest as one of our active "Treasure Hunters?" Two five year subscriptions, or, ten year subscriptions or any other combination which totals $20 gives you that extra club vote, which is (automatically) added to your regular schedule credits. Why not endeavor to count your votes in clubs instead of in annual subscriptions?

But—the main appeal of this article is to subscribers. While The News is justly proud of the large number of subscribers whose expiration date reads in advance, it is compelled to admit that there are too many whose date of expiration is in arrears. Subscriber, we want to talk with you. The News has been sent because, in the absence of any notification to the contrary, it has been assumed that you desired it to be continued and that you expected and intended to pay arrearages, when the bill was presented. If there is any mistake in the date to which The News has you charged, that error

Shipments Are Up From Lake Area As Prices Stay Same

199 Cars Shipped North During Past Seven Day Period

Another increase in the car lot shipments of beans from the Glades region was noted this past week with a total of 199 cars of beans and 3 mixed cars rolling out of the local section onto main tracks for the north. Last week's shipments totalled 162 cars which was a weekly high mark to that date for the season. Belle Glade again continued to top shipments with 83 cars being shipped out. Canal Point with 39, Pelican Lake with 38, South Bay with 20 and Cardwell station with 19 completing weekly shipments by stations. Monday and Tuesday of this week featured the heaviest production in the packing house operations with 91 cars being loaded.

According to information released Wednesday by the Federal-State Market News Service office in Belle Glade, the California growing areas experienced a damaging frost from November 11 to 14. The report, as supplied by the Division of Crop and Livestock Estimates, states as follows: "The frost wiped out tomatoes, peppers, cucumbers and beans remaining in fields, but the bulk of these crops had been harvested and frosts probably terminated this crop. The pods and bloom of Imperial Valley peas were injured, but there was no material vine

FOR WHICH WE GIVE THANKS

Pausing for a brief moment to look back over the year we find a multitude of reasons why the people of the Lake Okeechobee region should be thankful.

It did not just happen that we have had a bountiful season of crops, that our men have found labor in field and store, that our children have continued their educational progress, that no irreparable disaster has wrecked our homes or saddened our hearts. It was not an accident that we prospered and that we approach another Thanksgiving Day with bounteous blessings and with a full appreciation of them. We have labored that all these things might be so. We have lived in peace with our neighbors and the entire world and we have been faithful in every task to which we set our hearts and our hands. No strife has sprung up in our community, and neighborly differences have been adjusted with no great blot on the pages of our history. The same fate which favors those who strive for the best has been our faithful companion.

Sickness has come into our community, and death has left its shadow in some of our homes. But over these things we have not a quarrel. It is the world-plan that we must lose those dear to us, just as those who hold us dear must later on lose us. We have not paused to question the wisdom of this plan—we know that all things work together for good among those who are faithful in following the Golden Rule of old.

The religious life, the business life, the educational life and social life of this community has been such throughout the year that every man, woman and child must be truly thankful for the privilege of living here. There may be other communities which hold greater wealth but there are none in which true happiness is greater. Our people have lived in the spirit of human brotherhood and close to each other in handclasp and smile. We are richer as a result of this, far richer than those who lose sight of friendship in a desire for material wealth.

For all of the blessings that have come to us as a people, we are devoutly thankful. For the warm sunshine and the gentle rains that have grown and matured our crops, we are thankful. For the averting of foreign entanglements and political crises we are grateful. For good health and the power to labor happily at the tasks before us, we are pleased. With hearts filled with happiness we join in a song of gladness and of hope. We join as a community in pledging anew a continuation of the same high principles of citizenship which, in a large measure brought the reward we are now enjoying, and of which we are duly mindful as we reach this, the nation's season of Thanksgiving.

Library Patrons List Is Increased

The regular meeting of the Pahokee Public Library board was held in the Methodist Sunday school rooms, Monday, Nov. 14. Mrs. Ira York, as a representative of the B. T. Mrs. Uceba Carruthers reported that Barney Whitman had volunteered to paint a sign for the library. The name of Mrs. A. E. Morgan was added to the list of library members.

Mrs. Beckie Reed, WPA librarian, reported an increase in patronage of the library since moving to the Prince theatre building. The library is open daily 11 to 12; 2 to 5; 7:30 to 8:30. Board members present at the meeting were Mrs. Uceba Carruthers, Mrs. Cleo Douthit, Mrs. J. C. Mock, Mrs. Ira York, Mrs. Louis Vertommen, Mrs. B. B. Roach, Mrs. Minnie Callowya, Mrs. L. L. TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

By Russell Kay.

A century ago St. Joseph, on the Gulf of Mexico, was one of the foremost cities in Florida. The second railroad in America, and the first in the south, connected it with the outside world, while shipping of the world docked in its great water terminals.

Most of the cotton, minerals, naval stores and cattle of south Georgia, Alabama and northwest Florida moved through this port. Tourists and winter visitors flocked to its palatial hotels, thronged its glistening beaches. Those seeking employment made long and tedious journeys to work in its mills, shops and warehouses.

This great prosperous city was proud of her commerce and industry, confident of her future and many believed she was destined to become Florida's greatest metropolis. Her growth and progress were more rapid than that of the sister cities of her day, Pensacola, Tallahassee and St. Augustine.

Wealthy farmers, tradesmen and mill owners built beautiful homes along her waterfront, northern capitalists developed her beaches and sought to woo the tourists, mostly well-to-do merchants and plantation owners of the southeast, by providing modern hotels and one of the finest race tracks in the nation. While definite figures are not available it is believed that the population of St. Joseph in the year 1838 was between five and ten thousand.

In December of that year a little group of statesmen representing all sections of Florida journeyed to St. Joseph to attend the state's first constitutional convention and it was at this meeting that Florida's first state constitution was adopted in December, 1838.

One can picture that great occasion, certainly a glorious celebration must have been staged for conventions, then as now were auspicious affairs. No doubt these distinguished guests were wined and dined and royally entertained during the periods they were not engaged in the serious business of considering the problem of our first constitution.

Shortly after that memorable and historic event, death and destruction, swift and terrifying, sweeped down upon this gay and growing community to all, but wipe it from the map and even from the memory of man. With the growing commerce that came in ships, came also a mighty pestilence, the dreaded yellow fever. Men sick unto death, staggered ashore, to meet them came swarms of mosquitoes from nearby marsh and low lands, to buzz throughout the city as winged messengers of doom.

Terror stricken citizens fled for their lives, deserting their homes, their business and their dead. In a short time the population of St Joseph had dwindled to but a few hundred. When the great epidemic had passed a few stout hearts returned, still hoping that the stricken community would regain its loss and again assume leadership.

Then out of the south came another great disaster. Grey clouds swept over the shuddering skies to bring drenching torrential rains and in their wake the mighty hurricane. Striking the city in all its fury it made kindling wood of docks and buildings leaving little but wreckage in its wake.

And so the hopes and dreams of Florida's city of St. Joseph lay buried beneath a mass of debris, and those who might have returned sought fortune elsewhere as there was nothing to return to, and the few who remained following the storm soon deserted the place to seek more promising fields. For many years St. Joseph was but a hideous ghost town. Weeds took possession of its lifeless streets, the buzzard and bob cat, fox and field-mouse frolicked about its crumbling masonry.

But the state to which St. Joseph gave its first constitution grew into a great and mighty empire and today as we approach the 100th anniversary of that event we find a reborn city on the site of old St. Joseph that we now know as Port St. Joe. In the last century man has conquered yellow fever, he has learned to chart and protect himself against the tropical storm. Again the song of the hammer and the saw are being heard in old landmark. Modern hotels, shops and public buildings have arisen. Great docks and warehouses again beckon to foreign shipping and mighty mills and factories belch the smoke of industry skyward. Where ancient coach and ox-cart rumbled over winding woods roads, new velvet smooth highways welcome the truck and car.

Power Is Minus Quantity As Blue Devils Eke Out A Win Over Fort Pierce Eleven

Fighting Eagles Lead Blue Devils Until Final Minutes

There were three minutes remaining in the game. Ft. Pierce was leading the Blue Devils, 6 to 0, and had out-fought and out-charged the Devils for three and three-quarters periods. It was fourth down for the Devils on the Ft. Pierce 9 yard line. Followers of the Fighting Eagles had begun to settle back in their seats and breathe a mite easier for it appeared as if the Blue Devil offense had been stalemated again. Two line smashes and an incomplete pass had netted only one yard and it was fourth and nine long yards to go.

The Devils spread out of the huddle up into the line with Baxter as a single wing to the left. Frasure barked signals and the Ft. Pierce team widened into a 5-3-2-1 defense in anticipation of the pass. The pass from center was to Boynton who faded back a short distance, arm cocked. Meanwhile, Baxter had crossed into the end zone on the left side with a swarm of Eagles on his heels. No one seemed to notice Marion Spooner in the opposite side of the end zone until Joe Tom took sudden aim and fired a prefect bullet pass into the outstretched arms of the Blue Devil end for a touchdown. This knotted the score at 6 all with the all-important try for conversion coming up.

The Devils went into a regulation formation for a place kick. The ball came back to whoever was to place the ball but instead he turned and flipped short to Boynton who in turn shot a perfect pass to Baxter in the end zone for the extra margin, handing the Blue Devils a 7 to 6 win over the Fighting Eagles of Fort Pierce at Fort Pierce Friday afternoon.

The Blue Devils' winning touchdown culminated a fourth period drive of 59 yards that featured 3 of the 4 passes completed by the Devils in 14 tries. Beebe had kicked to Boynton on the Pahokee 41 who returned 10 yards to the Fort Pierce 49 where it was first and ten for the Devils. Two passes were incomplete and then Baxter nabbed a pass from Boynton and went to the 29 before being tackled. Dell and Boynton picked up 9 yards in 2 lines smashes and then a pass was incomplete making it fourth and four on the 23. Boynton got off another aerial to Baxter who was surrounded by four Eagles on the 10 yard line. The ball bounced off the fingers of one of the Ft. Pierce players and into the lucky hands of Captain Baxter for a first down on the 10. The touchdown pass came four plays later.

The Ft. Pierce touchdown came midway in the third period. The Eagles got a break when they recovered a Pahokee fumble on the Pahokee 38 yard line. Beebe completed a short over the line pass to Stuart on third down and Stuart crashed to the Pahokee 12 before he was finally brought down. Beebe found a hole at right tackle and went to the 5 yard line before being stopped. In two more line smashes Beebe made it a first down on the Pahokee 2. From the two yard line Beebe took a short pass from center and drove over the goal line for the touchdown. Beebe's drop kick just barely missed converting when it hit the cross bar and bounded back into the field.

There were no real scoring threats in the first half, both teams see-sawing back and forth with Baxter and Beebe staging a punting duel. A misty rain made the ball slippery and the Devils fumbled frequently. After Ft. Pierce had swept to their touchdown, the Devils behind the hard running of Dell and Boynton, carried to the Eagles 18 before they were stopped. This was the only scoring threat by the Devils before their touchdown in the fourth period.

The Devils out-rushed the Eagles, 120 to 37 and gained 53 yards in the air to 41 for Fort Pierce. In first downs the Devils also led, 10 to 5. Boynton and Dell carried the brunt of the Devils' attack but were fairly well bottled up by the alert Ft. Pierce defense. Beebe did most of the ball toting for the Eagles but also found the going a bit rough. Letts, for Ft. Pierce, was perhaps the outstanding star of the game playing a whale of a game at right end.

Ralph Kirk Makes Hole-In-One During Tournament Play

Many Other Glades Golfers In Clewiston Tournament

The Everglades medal play championship, being played over the Clewiston Golf club links, got under way in earnest last Sunday with eighteen hopefuls turning in qualifying rounds.

Most notable of the day's play was Ralph Kirk's hole-in-one on the 135 yard third hole. The Belle Glade boy, playing in a foursome with Arthur Wells, Lou Betzner, and Emmett Shelley, used a No. 7 iron to dump in the first ace of his golfing career. Kirk also did an abrupt about face in playing his first qualifying round, doing the first nine in a nasty 50 and coming home with a 40.

Arthur Wells led a brigade of four who had turned in the full quota of 36 qualifying holes. Wells had 88-82—170. Tom Shelley of Clewiston led the 18 hole boys with 38-44—82.

Qualifying play of 36 holes will continue through this week and over next Sunday. After that the boys will be grouped into flights of eight each, according to qualifying scores, and will battle it out over another 36 hole route of medal play for the championship. Only the last 36 hole scoring will count, the first 36 constituting qualifying places only.

Last Sunday's scores.

36 Holes—Arthur Wells, 88-82—170; Lou Betzner, 88-88—176; H. Land, 98-90—188; C. V. Parkinson, 96-96—192.

18 Holes—Tom Shelley, 38-44—82; E. M. "Doc" VanLandingham, 42-42—84; Emmett Shelley, 43-44—87; E. G. Kilpatrick, 43-45—88; Johnny Thomas, 45-43—88; Ralph Kirk, 50-40—90; H. C. VanLandingham, 47-43—90; Charles Fenwick, 47-44—91; Ed Ward, 47-45—92; Bill Owen, Jr., 48-46—94; J. W. Mosley, Jr., 48-47—95; Louis VanLandingham, 45-49—94; S. J Simmons, 49-50—99.

For the first time in the history of the Florida P.-T. A. the organization will have a permanent headquarters when the state offices are moved into their new headquarters in Orlando, this week. Mrs. A. G. Wagner, of Chuluota will be in charge of the office.

Radio telephone service is being opened between Shanghai, China and Japan.

Questions Fee For Occupational License

W. R. DeWitt, representative of the East Coast Motors, Inc., of West Palm Beach, Buick automobile dealers, represented the interests of his firm in a public discussion held at the regular session of the Belle Glade city council Wednesday night to decide whether or not the city's occupational tax should be revised and lowered.

Mr. DeWitt presented figures in the comparison of occupational license fees of other municipalities and Belle Glade and was of the opinion that the present fee of $75 is relatively high. His organization is planning to establish some type of sales representation in Belle Glade and the information sought is to be used in the formation of such a local unit. A motion was passed by the town council instructing Attorney H. D. Beck to prepare an ordinance for presentation at the next meeting containing certain general reductions in the occupational license fee.

Stuart plays Pahokee tonight on Lair field—kick-off 8:15. Be there.

Show Boat Follies To Play In Glades

Captain Henry will bring his Radio Stage show to the Lake Okeechobee region next week and play two one night stands. In Belle Glade on Thursday, Nov. 24, John Van Arnam's Radio Funmakers will play under the auspices of the American Legion. In Pahokee the following night, Friday, Nov. 25, the same show will be presented under the auspices of the police and fire departments.

The show is bringing a cast of 25 hand-picked radio and stage stars to furnish the entertainment. The doors of the tent theatre will open at 7:15 each night in each town with the overture by the Showboat Sailors orchestra and the curtain will raise promptly at 8 p. m. The price of admission will be found in an advertisement appearing elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

Predicting the greatest tourist season in Florida's history, state Hotel Commissioner Taylor stated that better facilities are offered than ever before, with clean comfortable accommodations to meet any pocketbook.

How To Roast A Turkey

Place trussed turkey, breast side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Do not add water. Roast in slow oven, 300 degrees F., until turkey is tender, basting occasionally with melted butter and pan drippings. Allow 3 to 3½ hours for 8 to 10 pound turkeys, and 4 to 5 hours for 10 to 16 pound turkeys. Use undrawn weight to figure time. Salt and pepper skin during last 30 minutes cooking. Cooking time may be shortened by increasing temperature of oven to moderate, 350 degrees F., during latter part of cooking.

How To Make Giblet Gravy

Wash giblets and neck, cover with boiling water, season generously with salt, pepper, onion, celery, bay leaf, etc. Simmer gently, remove liver after 15 minutes and continue simmering 2 hours. When turkey or chicken is done, remove to hot platter, pour off fat from roasting pan. For each cup of gravy to be made, return 1 to 2 tablespoons of fat to roasting pan, blend in an equal amount of flour, add strained giblet broth gradually and cook until gravy thickens, stirring constantly. Add chopped giblets; additional salt if necessary, heat thoroughly and serve at once.

Mock Duck

1 shoulder lamb, salt, pepper, clove garlic or onion. Have butcher shape lamb shoulder into mock duck. Wipe with damp cloth, stick with bits of garlic or add sliced onion if preferred, sprinkle generously with salt and pepper and roast in a slow oven, 300 degrees F., 40 to 45 minutes per puond. Wrap head and tail in greased cloth if they show signs of getting too brown.

Buttered Squash Rings

2 or 3 acorn squash, 2 to 3 tablespoons butter, salt, pepper, sugar. Wash and slice each squash into 4 pieces, discarding seeds. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and sugar, set on rack and steam 30 minutes or until tender. Melt butter in skillet, add squash, turn and coat thoroughly on both sides before serving.

Date and Nut Loaf

1 tsp. soda, 1 cup dates, cut, 1 cup boiling water, ¾ cup brown sugar, ¼ tsp. salt, 1 tbls. fat, 1 egg, ½ cup chopped walnuts, 1½ cup bread flour. Sprinkle the soda over cut dates, and pour boiling water over both. Stir sugar, salt, fat and egg. Add nuts, date mixture and sifted flour. Turn into greased loaf pan and bake slow about 1 hour.

Thanksgiving Salad

1 avocado, 2 oranges, 1 small pineapple, lettuce, French dressing. Peel and slice avocado, peel and section oranges, prepare and dice pineapple. Arrange on lettuce leaves. Serve with well-seasoned French dressing.

Japan has been importing three times as much American cotton recently as a year ago.

AT THE Theatres
SUNDAY AND MONDAY

When a personality, such as Sonja Henie achieves over-night stardom with one picture—as she did less than two years ago with "One In A Million"—the temptation is strong on the part of Hollywood's movie makers to be satisfied with merely repeating the picture formula which won such sensational acclaim. This probably would have worked out all right in Sonja's case—except for Sonja herself.

Far from being satisfied with that first brilliant success, the miraculous skating star set about to surpass it in every way—and did—with "Thin Ice" and "Happy Landing." And so it is easy to understand the wildly enthusiastic advance reports concerning Sonja's newest 20th Century-Fox triumph, "My Lucky Star," which plays at the Everglades theatre in Belle Glade on Sunday and Monday.

For one thing, "My Lucky Star" presents Sonja in an entirely new setting, far removed from Switzerland's Alpine peaks and Norway's remote peasant villages.

A radiant modern girl, having a modern good time on a co-ed campus, wearing swank clothes, having swell dates—that's Sonja as you'll see her now, against a background as American as a college yell.

Sharing star honors with her is Richard Greene, handsome young British actor who gave such a splendid account of himself in "Four Men And A Prayer," while Jean Davis, Cesar Romero and Buddy Ebsen promise much in the way of comedy in their featured roles.

The story, according to Director Roy Del Ruth, opens with Sonja enrolling as a student at Plymouth College, where she is to model the smart sports clothes of Romero's (or rather, his father's) Fifth Avenue store. In the school's annual ice carnival Sonja is so sensational that a picture magazine publishes her photograph on its cover. Romero's alimony-minded wife uses this to create a newspaper scandal between her husband and Sonja, forcing Sonja's resignation from school.

To clear her own name so that she will be free to continue her romance with Richard, and to help Romero raise the money to settle with his wife, Sonja agrees to stage her ice carnival in the Fifth Avenue store. It is here that Sonja performs her magnificent "Alice In Wonderland" ice ballet, one of the six big skating ensembles in the picture and a thing which has made audiences cry out in wonder and delight.

Director Del Ruth claims to have perfected some startling technical innovations in photographing Sonja's ice ensembles, for which Gordon and Revel have written several delightful new melodies.

"Little Tough Guy" with the "Dead End Kids" will be shown at the Pahokee theatre Sunday and Monday.

Town Of Christmas Gets New Machine To Cancel Its Mail

Famed Postmark Is Sought By Thousands Over America

CHRISTMAS, Nov. 17—(FNS)—It may be true in most parts of the country that "Christmas comes but once a year," with cheer and merriment despite all the hard work that goes with the Yuletide season.

But down here in this little town which wearied soldiers many years ago christened "Fort Christmas" when they had completed erection of their palmetto log fort, Christmas—even aside from the name of the community—is a long drawn out affair, for hardly does one holiday season end, t h a n another one begins.

And it's the hardest on young, and pretty. Juanita Tucker, who besides housewifely duties, is the postmistress of this small community, and as such must supervise the cancellation of thousands of letters from people all over the world who want their friends or children to get a letter postmarked right from the legendary headquarters of everything that goes with the Yuletide.

Last year more than 50,000 letters were run through the cancellation machines and sent to nearly every nation on the globe. This year even more are expected to be sent here for re-mailing to every section of the world.

In 1934, bent on ending the growing holiday mail rush, the postoffice department ordered discontinuance of the name Christmas, but a flood of letters from all over the nation protesting against the change, brought rescinding of the order, and this year authorities, seeing nothing could be done about it, shrugged, and sent Mrs. Tucker a new, ultra high speed cancellation machine to allow her to keep up with the last minute rush of mail.

NEW WATER MAIN

A motion in favor of the extension of a two inch water main to the residence of Judge G. A. Hubbell was introduced by Commissioner A. E. Kirchman at the regular Wednesday session of the Belle Glade city commission and passed by members present.

Enrollment Is Up 39 Pct. This Year At Canal Point School

School Rooms Are Filled To Capacity Report Shows

The enrollment for the second month of the term of the Canal Point junior high school numbered 263, cumulative; with 254 pupils actively enrolled. As compared with the same period of last year, 1937-38, this enrollment shows an increase of 39%. The enrollment a year ago was 189, cumulative, with 183 actively enrolled. A part of this increase may be attributed to the dike work that is in process at this time, however the greater increase is from new residents and bean graders. The attendance for this term is holding up well, for the second month of school, with only five pupils listed as irregular in attendance.

Some of the rooms at the school are filled to capacity, with the peak enrollment not reached yet. According to data covering the years from 1930 the highest enrollment of the school was reached in the school year, 1931-1932 when the figure reached 287. It would appear that this school year will go beyond this high figure in school population when the peak months of February and March are reached.

The Canal Point junior football team has been learning a new type of football during the past week during a lull in their schedule of games. This game is new to these boys, however, it has been played for several years. Six-man tackle football has all the interest and ruggedness of the eleven-man tackle football. This makes three types of football these boys are being trained to play.

The local boys have a practice game this afternoon between the first string and the second string —tilting themselves as Sand Cut first string versus the Canal Point second stringers.

The remainder of the Canal Point schedule will be Jupiter there on Nov. 22; Pahokee, there Nov 29 (both games being eleven-man touch); Clewiston, there Dec. 1st (tentative, six-man tackle); Conniston Road School there Dec. 6, (touch); and Clewiston, here Dec 8, (six-man tackle.)

The local boys are proud of their snappy new uniforms with red jerseys which the local business men have provided for the boys which represents an investment of approximately $90.

damage. If weather moderates movement of this crop will be delayed only two or three weeks. There will be considerable loss in celery and lettuce, mainly through reduction in sizes, which is difficult to appraise now."

The Lake Okeechobee section on Thursday was shipping a moderate number of cars and the market demands were steady. Carloads at packing houses were bringing 65c to 75c for bountifuls with a few at 80c. Stringless Black Valentines were bringing from 80c to 90c per hamper, tendergreens from 75c to 80c and the wax beans from $1.35 to $1.50 per hamper. Truck shipments were on the increase from the Glades section. An equivalent of 83 cars went out of the Florida Everglades region in a corresponding period that found 199 out by rail.

Market conditions in Eastern and Northern markets at the latest possible date found the market dull at Cleveland and Chicago, steady at Washington New York, Pittsburgh, Detroit Boston and Baltimore, slightly stronger at Philadelphia and unsettled at Cincinnati.

ers this season. They're so far ahead of the old style that there's no comparison. I've been carrying around a pocketful for a couple of weeks and I get a lot of pleasure out of dropping them in a glass of water for a few minutes —then pulling them out—wiping them dry—and presenting them to a would-ge customer in first class condition. They're really the stuff. One customer said they should be good, since a single thousand costs $8.00 as compared with $2.50 for the old style. But, I believe they're worth the difference.

4-H CANNING WINS

Catherine B. Rawle, 16, of South Bay is one of the Florida delegation to the 17th National 4-H Club Congress opening November 25 in Chicago. Awarded by State Home Demonstration Agent Mary E. Keown to the state's most worthy 4-H'er in canning projects, the trip climaxes a six-year record. She completed 20 projects in which she canned 2,114 pints of foods, raised garden products valued at $241.87, gave four public demonstrations and won $26.75 on exhibits at county and state shows. She will compete with other state winners in the Southern Extension Section for a $200 scholarship. A national winner, chosen from the four sectional champions, will receive an additional $200, provided with trips and county awards by the Kerr Glass company.

will be promptly and gladly corrected. If there has been no mistake can you reasonably blame The News if it expects payment for services rendered?

There is another side, subscriber, in which you are concerned. Each of you has a friend who has enlisted in this work, in whose welfare you have an interest. You have probably intended, since reading their name as a "Treasure Hunter" to give them a subscription "before the campaign ends." Has it occurred to you that a subscription this week will mean a lot more to that friend than a subscription will mean after the credits allowed for subscriptions become less, under the rules of the campaign.

Some of you have been subscribers during the years and possibly you have overlooked keeping the subscription up to date. Do you realize, right now, how much that subscription means to that friend in whose welfare you feel an interest? And—if you really desire to help that friend, do you wish to give your subscription at the time it will do her the most good? We simply wish to make it clear to you good people that a subscription paid now will be worth more than when paid later in the "Treasure Hunt" drive.

Next week, the country will observe Thanksgiving Day, the most typical American holiday and the one most generally celebrated. It is the occasion when people in all walks and all stations of life pause for a brief space of time and recall the events and circumstances for which they have cause to be thankful. May we offer a suggestion? Why not make a three-way Thanksgiving by the payment of a substantial subscription to your home paper? Here's how it would work. You, yourself would be thankful to have the expiration date of your paper read in advance. The publisher would be very thankful to see his list of subscribers carry advance dates instead of delinquent. The "Treasure Hunter" would be thankful for the commission and credits earned. Can you think of any other way in which you could promote a three-way Thanksgiving? Making three people thankful with one act is something worth while. Why not try it?

BABY BLUE DEVILS WIN

The Baby Blue Devil squad turned back the Fort Myers Junior High eleven 14-7 in a tussle at Lair Field Tuesday night. The Pahokee "B" squad dropped a previous encounter to the Myers squad at Ft. Myers two weeks ago. Coach Benson's squad showed considerable improvement over last performances with Cross providing the scoring punch for the locals. Cross scored once on a 35 yard run and set up another touchdown, scored by Peacock, after a similar run.

Much interest is being shown in the state-wide "Sugar" essay contest being conducted among Junior High school students in which the United States Sugar corporation of Clewiston is offering over $1,000 in prizes. President Bitting stated that the prize money would be awarded prior to the Christmas holidays.

"What Sugar Production Means To Florida" Is Subject

Prior to the Christmas holidays, the United States Sugar corporation will distribute over $1,100 in prizes to Junior High school students enrolled in the public schools of the state for the best essays written between Nov. 15 and Dec. 1 on the subject "What Sugar Production Means to Florida." This essay contest approved by both Agricultural Commissioner, Nathan Mayo, and Superintendent of Public Instruction Colin English, is in no way commercial and is designed to acquaint Florida students with the agricultural and industrial development of the Everglades as the "Nation's Sugar Bowl."
